

True to Our Promise

We are today in receipt of an advance shipment of Spring Tailored Suits and Skirts. As usual we are first to show the new things.

The new butterfly models in Silk and Wool Suits will be shown for the first time tomorrow at popular prices. . . $22.50, $25.00, $27.50, $30.00.

The new gored and habit-back styles in separate skirts at . . . $5.00, $7.50, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50

While we are first to show advance styles in spring garments (and we want you to buy them early) our interest in the sale of all winter goods is not lagging.

You can still buy choice of any winter Suit or Coat at . . . ONE-HALF PRICE

So long as your needs demand winter merchandise (and that will be a long time yet) you'll find our reduced prices of special interest.

Two common sense things with reference to this store, i. e.:

Actively engaged in the selling of all winter goods, while it's still winter—

Consistently showing advance styles in spring merchandise as the approaching season demands it

CAPITAL CONSPIRACY CASES

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN BY ARCHITECT'S ASSISTANT ON STAND TODAY.

By Associated Press. Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 5.—All doubts as to the attitude of Architect Joseph M. Houston toward his defendants in the capital conspiracy trial was dispelled today by the testimony of his assistant, Stanford B. Lewis, who gave damaging evidence against the defendant.

Lewis gave testimony to show that while the original certificates held by Houston were the same as those used by all architects, the form of Houston's certificates were so changed as to specifically include weights and measurements.

SUSPENDS PUBLIC PRINTER

W. S. ROSSITER TEMPORARILY APPOINTED TO SUCCEED C. A. STALLINGS.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The president today temporarily suspended Public Printer, Charles A. Stallings, and appointed Wm. S. Rossiter temporarily to the duties of that office.

The president's action as explained officially is to facilitate the investigation now being made of the government printing office by congress.

Port Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done more for me than any other medicine has ever done." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Backache and Liver Pills. They are sold by W. E. Frame. d&w

The Bird Had Flown.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Lantz of Kaufman county, Texas, arrived in the city this morning to take one Geo. Bean, a much wanted white man, who was captured by Chief of Police Buck Garrett last Friday and who is wanted on two charges of larceny and live stock in that county in Texas. But to the chagrin of the deputy from Kaufman county, Texas, the bird wanted had flown some time during the night, and the deputy was compelled to return to Texas without him.

MUCH CORN DESTROYED

FIFTEEN THOUSAND BUSHELS OF CORN DESTROYED BY FIRE AT SULPHUR AND MARLOW.

Oklahoma was visited by the fire fiend last night. Five thousand bushels of corn was burned in West Sulphur. The corn was stored in the skating rink and the fire which occurred early in the night destroyed the building and the corn. The loss will aggregate $3,000, with $1,000 insurance. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin and Sheriff Maxwell is making every effort to capture the guilty parties by the use of bloodhounds.

The other fire occurred at Marlow, where the corn sheds and 10,000 bushels of corn, belonging to the Yukon Mill & Elevator Co., were destroyed. The sheds were located between the shedders and the company could obtain but little insurance. The insurance will not cover more than one-fourth of the loss. J. J. Berry, a grain man of this city, was a member of the company and lost heavily by the fire.

NOTICE—Having sold all of my interest in the law office of Ballinger, Lee and Sams, notice is hereby given that I am no longer a member of that firm.

TO THE PUBLIC—A new shipment of Louisiana ribbon cane syrup just arrived. I can supply you in any quantity from one to five gallons. This syrup is guaranteed to be absolutely pure. Phone 305 and your order will be delivered promptly. J. E. DeArmond, Agent. 31412-w2.

HIS OLD TRICK.

Cupid, wicked little rascal. One day, east aside his dart; Crept up when I wasn't looking, And he deftly stole my heart.

Told him that he was a sneak thief. But he simply turned and fled; And instead of rightful owner, Gave it to girl instead.

The Mother's club of the Fourth ward will have a called meeting at the Jefferson building tomorrow. (Thursday) afternoon. Very important business to be transacted and every member is urged to be present.

MRS. M. H. KARD, President.

The Whist club did not meet this afternoon.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. Addington on next Monday afternoon and every member is urged to be present to take part in the program. The subject is: "Father Ryan, the priest poet."

Tomorrow night the Twentieth Century Gilders will dance at their club rooms. This will mark the third of their series of winter dances and if they all prove as successful as the past two there is a royal good time in store for all who have a "stand in" with these clever boys.

The Missionary society of the Broadway Methodist church will meet at the parsonage Thursday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers.

Dainty invitations reading as follows were received by a number of citizens this morning:

Mrs. N. C. Wood. Mrs. J. M. Goss. Invite you to be present at a musicale given by.

Miss Lucile Cameron Boone Saturday, February 8th, 9:30 a. m. Christian Church Reception 11 to 12.

The Mystic social given by the young ladies of the Christian church Tuesday was a success in every sense, and the girls deserve considerable credit for the unique way in getting it up. On entering you were at a loss to know just where to go first and what would happen to you wherever you did go. There were spooks on every turn and a great ugly face smiled at you on every turn. There was a fortune teller there with all her prophecies for the future and who was betted posted on your past record than you were yourself. This was no other than Miss Wynne Ledbetter. There was a "blind tiger," where territorial drinks were dispensed.

The lights were low and everything had a weird and witchcraft appearance. Quite a neat sum was added to the treasury.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Broadway Baptist church met with Mrs. T. A. Thurmond Tuesday afternoon. On account of the very disagreeable weather there was only a very small attendance and no business was transacted. However, the few who were present spent a very enjoyable evening and the hostess served tea.

There being so much sickness among the members the Ladies' Aid society of South Ardmore did not meet as was announced. On next Tuesday they will meet with Mrs. Aston and have a literary program.

The Home Mission society of the Broadway Methodist church met at the church Tuesday and elected officers for the ensuing year.

Mrs. J. A. Wolverton, president. Mrs. N. C. Wood, first vice-president.

Mrs. J. M. Zike, second vice-president.

Mrs. Bass, recording secretary. Mrs. Hanks, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Tarver, treasurer.

A program for the year was planned and will be printed in pamphlet form.

The Presbyterian Aid society did not meet this week.

The ladies of the Jewish Aid society met with Mrs. Jonas Baum Tuesday afternoon. There was scarcely any business to be transacted, as these ladies have the reputation of being one of the most systematic and congenial organizations in the city.

After the regular order of business the hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon and a merry good time was had the remainder of the session.

Mrs. A. Walcott entertained Monday evening complimentary to her friend, Miss Gregg of Fayetteville, Ark. When invitations are extended to the Walcott home everyone knows there is pleasure in store for them. Cards and dancing were the features of the evening and a most tempting luncheon was served in courses. The guest list included: Miss Mullen and Mr. Adams, Miss Gardendire and Mr. Kemper, Miss Alvis and Mr. Buchanan, Miss Jennie Williams and Mr. Miller, Miss Adams of Jefferson, Texas, and Mr. D. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Buchanan, Miss Sophie Fry, Mrs. Bo Blake, the honoree and Mr. Charles D. Wortham, the host and hostess.
